

M. Noth

17.1-1 Close affinity between E and D seen in the way that many passages which were heretofore ascribed to E are now assigned to D by Martin Noth and others.

17.1-8 J and E are so closely related that E can be considered only as a secondary recension of J.

19.06 Does not consider it justifiable to describe Moses as the organizer and law-giver of Israel. To him the Sinai event seems without historical connection.
