

Outline of Article on BIBLICAL ARCHEOLOGY

- I. Introduction. p.1
  - A. New Vistas for Old Testament Studies. p.1
  - B. Archeology Defined. p.2
  - C. Biblical Archeology. p.3
  - D. Why Archeology is Important to the Biblical Student. p.3
- II. Egyptian Archeology. p.5
  - A. The Land of Egypt. p.5
  - B. Egyptian Remains. p.6
  - C. Egyptian Writing. p.8
    - 1. The Decipherment. p.8
    - 2. The Nature of the Writing. p.9
    - 3. The Egyptian Language. p.12
    - 4. Egyptian Literature. p.12
  - D. The History of Ancient Egypt. p.13
    - 1. Chronology. p.14
    - 2. Pre-history. p.15
    - 3. The Old Kingdom. p.16
    - 4. The Middle Kingdom. p.16
    - 5. The Empire. p.17
    - 6. The Persian Period. p.19
    - 7. The Hellenistic Period. p.19
    - 8. The Roman Period. p.19
  - E. Relation of Egyptian Archeology to the Bible. p.20
    - 1. General Corroboration. p.20
    - 2. Special Corroboration. p.22
    - 3. Why not more Egyptian material for Special Corroboration. p.23
    - 4. Interpretation. p.25
    - 5. Particular Problems. p.26
    - 6. The Problem of Derivation. p.27
      - (1) Joseph and Potiphar's Wife. p.27
      - (2) The so-called Heretic King. p.29
- III. Mesopotamia. p.30
  - A. Geographical Background. p.30
  - B. Excavation in Mesopotamia. p.32
    - 1. History of Exploration and Excavation. p.32
  - C. History of Decipherment and Study of the Language. p.34
    - 1. Decipherment. p.34
    - 2. The Cuneiform Writing. p.36
    - 3. Akkadian. p.38
    - 4. Sumerian. p.39
    - 5. Akkadian as a lingua franca. p.40
    - 6. Other uses of Cuneiform. p.41.
  - D. Survey of the History of Mesopotamia. p.41
    - 1. Prehistoric. p.41
    - 2. The Sumerian Period. p.42
    - 3. The Old Akkadian Period. p.42
    - 4. The Early Babylonian Period. p.43
    - 5. The Remainder of the Second Millennium B.C. p.43
    - 6. The Assyrian Empire. p.44
    - 7. The Neo-Babylonian Empire. p.44
    - 8. The Persian Period. p.45
    - 9. The Hellenistic Period. p.45