

- E. Relations of Mesopotamian Archeology to the Old Testament. p.46
 - 1. Genesis 1-11. p.46
 - 2. The Period of the Patriarchs. p.47
 - 3. The Period of the Kings--The Assyrian Empire. p.48
 - 4. The Neo-Babylonian Period. p.48
 - 5. Relation to General Corroboration. p.48
 - 6. Relation to Special Corroboration. p.49
 - 7. Relation to Interpretation. p.50
 - 8. Relation to Derivation. p.51
- IV. Other Areas Outside Palestine; that have Produced Material Related to the O.T. p.52
 - A. Syria. p.52
 - B. The Hittites. p.55
 - C. Persia. p.55
 - D. South Arabia. p.56
- V. Archeology of Palestine. p.56
 - A. Difference from Egypt and Mesopotamia. p.56
 - B. Exploration to 1914--the Vital Principles Discovered. p.58
 - C. Excavation between the Two World Wars (1919-1939). p.64
 - 1. General Conditions. p.64
 - 2. The Great Expeditions. p.67
 - 3. Excavations of the American School of Oriental Research. p.69
 - 4. Other Excavations. p.70
 - D. Palestinian Archeology since the Second World War. p.71
 - E. Relation of Palestinian Archeology to the Bible. p.73
 - 1. The Situation in General. p.73
 - 2. General Corroboration. p.74
 - 3. Special Corroboration. p.79
 - 4. Help in Interpretation. p.81
 - 5. Derivation. p.82
 - 6. The Problem of the Date of the Conquest. p.83
 - 7. General Conclusions regarding Old Testament Archeology. p.85
- VI. Palestine in New Testament Times. p.85
 - A. Comparison with the archeology of Palestine in Old Testament Times. p.85
 - B. The Discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls. p.88
 - C. General Corroboration. p.89
 - D. Special Corroboration. p.90
 - E. Interpretation. p.91
 - F. Derivation. p.94
- VII. New Testament Archeology of Countries Outside of Palestine
 - A. The General Situation. p.97
 - B. General Corroboration. p.99
 - C. Special Corroboration. p.99
 - D. Interpretation. p.101
 - E. Derivation. p.102
 - F. Conclusion regarding Biblical Archeology. p.103