

Thirty years later the bones of John Chrysostom were brought back to Constantinople and buried with great ceremony. The whole Christian Church has recognized him as one of the great saints of the fourth and fifth centuries.

As a thinker, Augustine is pre-eminent. As a preacher, Chrysostom has rarely been equaled.