

Elective in Daniel, Part I
1955-56

B 3

63	7: 7:23-24	Four beasts; little horn
65		Assingments
66		Divisions of the book
68		Contents of ch. 1-5 described
68/1-5		Purpose of ch.1-6
6-10		ch. 7-12
69		The four great visions
70	11:2-4	Identification of the kings referred to
71	11:2	Persian kings Battle of Thermopoly ^{RA?}
72	11:2
72		Resemblance of 11:4,3 with 8:8-10 "not to his posterity" cf. descendants of Alexander
73	11:3	"according to his will" - his own
74		Nothing could stop Alex. the Grt.
74/4		Order of events illustrated from NT & from own life
75		Could be logical or could be chronological
75/1		Two things are compared without stating how soon they happened.
75/8		Dan. does not tell about ALL the kings. He is selective.
76		Principle of selection illustrated Are not naming all unless you specifically say that is what you are going to do. No right to assume two statements follow each other without a break between unless it is specifically so stated.
77	11:2-4
77		a contrast between two events which logically can be compared
78/3	11:3,4	Alexander the Great (all agree)
78/6	11:5	Seleucids & Ptolemies
79/1-8		Phalanx of the Greeks
79/9		Ptolemy's good sense
80/5		Egypt - Ptolemy Egypt - part of the Persian Empire
81		Seleucids break with Ptolemy Took over Babylon 312 BSC. CLEAR
81/5-10		Destiny since Seleucus
82	11:1-5 11:2	Later Palestine became part of Seleucid empire Exactly fulfilled
83/3	11:21
83		Young on prophecy not being history in advance
84		Two methods of Bible Study
84/7		On the sermon xxxxxx preparation
85	11:
86		Sparks on Daniel 11
86/9	11:21	