

- 1-2 What follows the Babylonian empire?
- 3 Medo-Persia viewed as one animal in ch. 8
- 4 5:28 "divided" into two pieces. Medo-Persia is one kgdm, not two.
- 5 5:8 "the law of the Medes and Persians" -- significance of phrase
- 6-7 suggests strongly one unit rather than two distinct empires
- 8 6:28
- 9 Evidence re Medo-Persian empire
- 9/9 Darius the Mede
- 10-11 Nebuchadnezzar's greatness & egotism
- 11/6 Cartoon of 8 people with same face
- 12 Importance of E.H. Harriman in American political life, 1905-10.
- 13 Darius & Cyrus
- 14 MacArthur may be forgotten in Japan
- 15 5:31 Darius received the kgdm.
- 16 9:1 " was made king
- 9-16 Survey of evidence whether author of Daniel thought there was a distinct Median and Persian empire
- are not
- 17/8 7: 10 horns & 10 kings ruling at one time
- 18/1-7 8:7 two horns were broken
- 18/8 6:28 Two distinct reigns?
- 19 explanation cont'd
- 20 Story of man who manufactured a Persian treason against Belshazzar with Daniel as leader
- 21 MacRae's grandfather in British army in India
- 21/7 8:8
- 23 ch. 8 does not go to end of age.
chs. 2 and 7 do go to end of age.
- 24 What is the end that is in view?
- 25 Importance of getting the big points first before working out the details.
- 27 A certain phrase is not always used in the same way.
- 27/8 The little horn. It is same in ch. 7 and in ch. 8?