a year, I think I can do that work, even if I do take a year off for a vacation," out that that isn't the way ^{would} the Lord would account us. We/have misconceptions of the way the Lord would have us to account for the work, for Him. Dr. MacRae—Well, I guess we'll have to stop for today, and we'll go on with this further at another time. Two weeks from today, if that is satisfactory to everybody.
The day after Easter.
