

all Jesuits must be expelled from the Spanish Dominion, The Dominicans and Franciscans who were in the audience chamber, clapped their hands. And they were seized all through South America, all through Mexico, the Jesuits were seized by the Spanish rulers, allowed to take two books with them , nothing else, seized and taken off and exiled from the Spanish Dominion. And then the Pope ordered the order disbanded because it was so hated all over Europe, particularly by Romanists, it was disbanded and ordered to disappear (85.75) but it kept itself alive in Russia the order kept itself alive in Europe in Russia and they were devoted fanatically to obedience to the Pope. Well people said the Pope has ordered that the order be disbanded - there are to be no more Jesuits but they said the Papal order could not be published in Russia because the Russian Czar has forbidden anything published in Russia. Therefore we are not officially aware of it - therefore we do not have to obey it. So they kept alive the organization in Russia until another Pope ~~was~~ re-established ^{them} /and they could go back. Well we will look at details of this

As far as, of course, the Kingdom of Heaven is concerned, the Reformation was a great movement of tremendous importance. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

~~(8X)XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ This was a check on it, a stop to it, a pushing back of it. But as far as the history of the world is concerned both of them had tremendous impact in political ways and every other way - tremendous impact. And of course the unfortunate thing is that today the Reformation force seems to have been pretty well dried up and we need a new force to go forward energetically now while the Counter-Reformation is today in some ways stronger than it's ever been. It's greatest effectiveness was in its first 50 years after it got really under
