

c, we noticed the various principles. The importance of free enterpr/ise in ch. ~~gex~~ affairs ~~maxx~~ as in all other enterprises, and I think this is a very important thing. It is very easy for a man to think, my if I was in control, what I would do. It is very easy to think. ~~x~~It is very easy for a man to think, I can dictate and ~~xxxx~~ everything will go forward. But soon you will find that he is not equal to the task. It is very easy for a group to think, we are the legislative party, we have the authority, we can do what we want, like the bodies they say in one of the mid-western states.....in order to crease difficultbes in building and so on, that pi, the relation between the diameter of a sphere would no longer be 3.1459 etc. ~~xxxxixxxxx~~ but would be 3 and 1/7, it would be a much simpler criterion and much easier/ to use. But you cac't do it. It is like ~~that~~ the legislature that somebody said decided to repeal the law of supply and;demand. These economic laws and principles, these ~~pxx~~ principles of geometry, these principles of human nature are there, and we can't change them. And a ~~legixtax~~ legislative body is effective, not insofar as it expresses the ~~maxjx~~ majority will of its members or its constituents, but insofar as ~~ix~~ its decisions are in line with situations and adapted to secure the results needed. That is the thing that determines the good of the thing, not the mjority of supporters. And ~~that~~ if a great majority of a nation can ~~p~~ be persuaded to vote in the wrong direction on a vital enough issue, that nation will lose its existence. The voice of the people is not the voice of God. It is reason and study of ~~xx~~ circumstances that determines what is true, not how many noses can be counted in a sitaution. And here comes in this great principle of the importance of free enterprise. And in the history of the church, of you go right through the church, and you say, who had started the great movements of the church, it is rare indeed that you will find that a great movement was started because the hierarchical leader of the church said we are going to do it. ~~A~~ Or because a legislative body of the church determined that this would be a fine direction in which to reach out. Great missionary movements of recent years have been started by individuals who have received a desire and a passion, and who have ~~xx~~ eventually
