Pennsylvania. He was a njce fellow. So they went out there, and they asked a policeman on the street, what do you think of this minister. Well, he says, I don't know. I am a Roman Catholic myself, and I don't know, but he said I have never heard anything against him. And they asked a couple of people like that, and they had the man come, and ae preached well, he had a good sermon and well prepared and planned and worked out. And they called him. And he proved to be a real modernist. And that xxx church was a thoroughly Christian church, he just led them away.

I know of a church up here in Scranton. A man I kxwxfxx know of, a man of wealth. Who told me that they had a new pastor there, and he xx went ot see this new pastor, and he said to him, you know, I am a Presbyterian elder with no church to go to. And he said I would like a church where somebody preaches like McCartney or Machen. Well, he said, I am your man. That is just the way I preach. Well, he told me that he went to the church. And he said before the man had been there a month he began attacking premillennialists. He began tearing into premillennialism. And after two months/ one time he jxxx just began riding that type of people, oh the most ignorant terrible people he ever heard of, and he said that these people are the people called the fundamentalists. And he just was absolutely different from the fron t he put on when he came to the church. It is very easy to deceive untrained and unequipped people, very easy. And if we think it is very important that there be a definite selection, and that the people have the chance to make vital decisions. We think it is very importat, but it is a place and an importnat place, and the question is, how are you going to get that expert opinion.
