

5. Baptism.

a. The fact of this covenant blessing is clearly taught in Scripture.

(1). Paul describes Abraham as a Father of all who believe.

(2). Abraham had a responsibility for his children.

(3). God promises blessings to the children of his people.

b. The bringing of children into the world is not simply a by-product of man's wickedness, it is a positive command of God.

c. God does not command us to bring children into the world, simply in the hope that perhaps they may be saved.
