

	Page
Second Argument, from the Current Representations of Scripture	383
Third Argument, from Particular Passages of Scripture	384
3. The Hypostatical Union	387
Two Natures in Christ
The Two Natures are united but not mingled or confounded	389
There is no Transfer of the Attributes of one Nature to the Other	390
The Union is a Personal Union
4. Consequences of the Hypostatical Union	392
Communion of Attributes	