

- 121/1-10 41:21,23 The 1929 depression and inaccurate human predictions
- 121/3-7 Inability to predict is harder than inability to do anything in demonstrating proofs
- 121/8-10 God's exclusive predictability ; Cyrus
- 122/1-10 41:21,23 Cyrus and irrelevance of critical argument against prediction.
- 123 Cyrus
- 124/1-2 41:22,23 predictability challenged
- 124/3-5 41:27,28,29 The central theme of comfort, the deliverance
- 124/6-9 41:28 There is no man; no one to bring deliverance
- 124/10 Chapter division from 41 to 47
- 125/1-6 Chapter division : 41, 42, 43
- 125/7-10 The servant of the Lord.
- 126/1-6 41:29 Verse 28 parallel to v. 27.
- 126/7-10 42:1-7 The work of the servant
- 127/1-3 The wonderful provision of God for his servant
- 127/4-10 The names of God, Lord, God, etc.
- 128/1-2 " " " "
- 128/3-10 " " " and its pronunciation; Niagara Falls pronounced. illustrated
- 129 " " " "
- 130/1-3 Cyrus; prediction coming to pass
- 130/4-6 42:1-7 The calm deliberate activity of the servant of God
- 130/7-10 :13-15 The Lord moving with fury, violence
;17 a note of idolatry
;16 The kindly attitude of the Lord toward His own
- 131/1-10 42:18, 19 "Who is blind but my servant?"
- 132/1-10 Whose is this servant?
- 133/1-4 42:20 The Lord is well pleased for his righteousness' sake