

| | | |
|----------------|-----------------|--|
| 180/ | 43:14 | "I have brought down all their nobles," grammatically exegetically viewed. |
| 181/1-3 | " | " " " " " " |
| 181/4-5 | " | "... whose cry is in the ships." |
| 181/6-10 | " " | fugitives |
| 182/ | " | comments on "nobles" "I sent to Babylon" "I sent" grammatically, exegetically examined |
| 183 | | |
| 183/1-4 | " | " " " " " |
| 183/5-10 | | The K.J. V. translators's familiarity w/th Massoretic text and the Latin commentaries of their day. |
| 184/1-3 | | The K.J.V. translators' change of tense in line with the current interpretation |
| 184/4-10 | Judg8:12 | The "tenacious" memory of Gideon explained from the viewpoint of translation of a word _____ in Hebrew. "he wrote" or described |
| 185/1-3 | | "describe?" |
| 185/4-7 | 43:14 | "fugitive" |
| 185/8-10 | " | refers to the Babylonian conquest of Jerusalem or to the lease of the Jews from Babylon? MacRae: the former |
| 186/1-3 | 43:17 | "the chariot and horse, the army and the power." |
| 186/4-5 | 43:9 | :let the nations be gathered...." |
| 186/6-10 | 43:10,21,22 | interpreted |
| 187/1-2 | 43:27 | Denunciation for the sin that has produced the exile |
| 187/3-6 | 44: | Pronouncement of tremendous blessings |
| 187/7-10 | 45: :9,12,21 | Futility and folly and wickedness of idol worship |
| 188/1-5 | 45:24ff | Deliverance from exile |
| 188/6-10 | | Cyrus |
| 189/4-10 | | Cyrus, the anointed.... |
| 190 | 45:1 | " " |