

- 289/5-10 :9 A rhetorical presentation of the pass .
- 289/10 " Rahab = a figure used for Egypt
- 290/1-5 51:10 Exodus affair at the Red Sea
- 290/6-10 51:11 Deliverance from the captivity, return to Zion - suggesting the Greater Return in the future far
- 291/1-3 51:12 God is stronger than the Babylonian king
- 291/4-10 51:13 "Stretching forth" act of God in consonance with the Modern conception of the universe
- 292/1-6 51:14 The assurance of deliverance from exile
- 292/7-10 51:17 Jerusalem and its condition
- 293/3-10 51:21 What is meant by "Thou shalt no more drink it again"?
- 294/1-3 " " " " " "
- 294/4-10 Chapter division and a prob. in interpretation of Scripture
- 295/1-5 51:21 "thou shalt no more drink it again"
- 295/6-10 52:1 the Holy city - lit. the city of the sanctuary
Is Jerusalem to immediately experience this prediction?
- 296/1-6 52:1 The pass. exegeted
- 296/7-10 52:2 The release from exile
- 297 52:3 "Ye have sold yourselves for nought...."
- 298/1-10 52:3 Self-enslavement
- 298/7-10 Hammurabi on enslavement
- 299/1-3 "Ye have sold yourselves for nought"
- 299/4-10 A similar situation in the Gibeonites
- 300/1-10 An illustration from daily life; Sir Walter Scott and his debt
- 301/1-8 " " " "
- 301/9-10 " Something more than money payment is necessary
- 302/1-3 52:4 Assyrian oppression and Egyptian bondage